“Be Safe, Be Proud - At The Landfill”

An OSHA-Sponsored Safety Video

This 20-minute, viewer friendly video was developed by the National Solid Wastes Management Association (NSWMA) under a grant from the federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) awarded to the Environmental Research and Education Foundation (EREF). The video was shot at one of the largest landfills in the United States and shows real landfill disposal operations. Focusing on common safety hazards faced by landfill workers and haulers at landfills, this unique video will help users reduce landfill accidents, injuries, and fatalities.

Be Safe, Be Proud - At the Landfill is available in VHS or DVD in English and Spanish for $89 each!
